JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: 120 MONTHS on each of Counts 1 and 2 of the Information, to be served concurrently.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $15,000, which shall bear interest as provided by law. The fine shall be paid in full within 30 days. The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 18-10.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons evaluate the defendant for participation in the Bureau of Prisons' 500-hour Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP).

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five (5) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and General Order 18-10, including the conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Section III of General Order 18-10.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
4. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
5. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
6. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
8. The defendant shall possess and use only those digital devices and internet accounts that have been disclosed to, and approved by, the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Office upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or addition to digital devices or internet accounts are to be disclosed to, and approved by, the Probation Officer prior to the first use of same. Disclosure shall include both user names and passwords for all digital devices and internet accounts. Digital devices include, but are not limited to, personal computers, tablet computers such as iPads, mobile/cellular telephones, personal data assistants, digital storage media, devices or media which provide access to electronic games, devices that can access or can be modified to access the internet, as well as any of their peripheral equipment. Internet accounts include, but are not limited to, email accounts, social media accounts, electronic bulletin boards, or other accounts on the internet.
9. After the Probation Officer has given the defendant approval to use a particular digital device or internet account, the defendant need not notify the Probation Officer about subsequent use of that particular digital device or internet account. Defendant shall, however, notify his Probation Officer of any additions to, removals from, or other modifications of the hardware or software on any digital device or internet account that the defendant causes to occur, within one week of that addition, removal or modification. The defendant shall not hide or encrypt files or data without specific prior approval from the Probation Officer.

10. The defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with all billing records for any service or good relating to any digital device or internet account, including those for cellular telephone, cable, internet and satellite services, as requested by the Probation Officer, so that the Probation Officer can verify compliance with these requirements.
11. The defendant consents to search at any time of the day or night, with or without a search warrant, warrant of arrest, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion by any Probation Officer or law enforcement office, and waives any right to object to any search and seizure, of any digital device or internet account used by the defendant.
12. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program and shall pay the cost of the Computer monitoring Program, in an amount not to exceed $32 per month per device connected to the internet.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court recommends that the defendant be allowed to participate in the First Step Program while incarcerated and housed at a facility in Southern California. The Court recommends priority be given to the RDAP and First Step Programs before the recommendation of housing in Southern California

On the Government's motion, the remaining counts are ordered DISMISSED. Defendant is advised of his appeal rights.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
